

HHH MISSION

Hope & Healing at Hillenglade™ Equine-Assisted Programs & Events offer a safe place to:

RENEW HEARTS • RESTORE RELATIONSHIPS • REBUILD LIVES

HHH RECOGNIZES POST TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER (PTSD) as the unseen enemy that follows all too many of our soldiers home from war... Every 65 minutes, at least one of our national heroes' life is ended by suicide.

THE LOSS IS TRAGIC • FAMILIES ARE AT RISK

HHH CAN HELP

FOR THOSE WHO HAVE SERVED OUR COUNTRY AND SACRIFICED SO MUCH TO PROTECT OUR FREEDOMS!

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

"Thank you for your support of Veterans and their families through your programs - especially those suffering the effects of PTSD. We look forward to recognizing your great work at our Region III Banquet with a special award for your HHH efforts!"

-Barry Rice, President / Tennessee State Council / Vietnam Veterans of America

"Thank you for arranging such a superb program... I look forward to helping you with your future events."

-Lt. General Hugh Smith, Retired

"Jen, your latest HHH event, as always, was a warm, relaxing, joyful gathering of Heroes who had the privilege of being honored by you and the HHH Team with food, music, games and a healing ambiance... And of course magical horses!" -Tia Acosta / M.D. Specialist in PTSD

"The therapeutic effect of the horses on victims of PTSD is remarkable, according to O'Neill. 'Horses are such gentle giants - Warriors relate to them because they're so powerful, and yet they have a keen sense of communication. They are magical animals with a calming effect...' Dr. Marc Siegel, professor of medicine at NYU Langone Medical Center and a Fox News contributor said Equine Therapy is becoming increasingly common in treating victims of PTSD. 'What really works well for PTSD is love - whether that's from a person or an animal, it doesn't matter,' Siegel said. 'Horses are absolutely therapeutic. I believe in this.'"

-Cristina Corbin / New York-based reporter for FoxNews.com

"Everyone at Hillenglade thanked us over and over for our military service, and loved on our kids like they were their own. It was so amazing..." -Rachel J. / Military Wife

"Jennifer, I am a member of the BPO Elks. We have many members that are interested in assisting in your Veteran-related events. Please contact me to discuss your wonderful efforts and how we might help." -Stephen Parsons / BPO Elks Lodge 72
